

Changing Workplace Review

BINGO

1. Take a moment and read the BINGO card below.
2. Think about how these scenarios apply to you, your family and friend's work situation.
3. Talk to other players and see which BINGO scenario applies to them or people they know.
4. Ask the other player to sign the BINGO square. One signature per square.
5. Summarize in one sentence, how their situation could improve on the back page.
6. Fill 2 rows to win. First person to yell BINGO gets a prize.

1. I know someone who would benefit if all employers must give 2 weeks notice for scheduling.	2. I know someone who had to reapply for the same job when new management took over the business.	3. I know someone who is getting paid less for the same job with the same employer.
4. I know someone who went to work sick because they don't have sick leave.	5. I know someone who can benefit from a higher minimum wage.	6. I know someone who has worked for a long term employer, but doesn't get CPP and other normal staff benefits.
7. I know someone who is too scared to report that their employer is ignoring workers' rights.	8. I know someone who holds 3 part-time jobs because they don't know if they will get enough hours.	9. I know someone who would benefit if we made it easier to unionize with a card check system.

Changing Workplace Review

BINGO

1. Take a moment and read the BINGO card below.
2. Think about how these scenarios apply to you, your family and friend's work situation.
3. Talk to other players and see which BINGO scenario applies to them or people they know.
4. Ask the other player to sign the BINGO square. One signature per square.
5. Summarize in one sentence, how their situation could improve on the back page.
6. Fill 2 rows to win. First person to yell BINGO gets a prize.

1. I know someone who would benefit if all employers must give 2 weeks notice for scheduling.	2. I know someone who had to reapply for the same job when new management took over the business.	3. I know someone who is getting paid less for the same job with the same employer.
4. I know someone who went to work sick because they don't have sick leave.	5. I know someone who can benefit from a higher minimum wage.	6. I know someone who has worked for a long term employer, but doesn't get CPP and other normal staff benefits.
7. I know someone who is too scared to report that their employer is ignoring workers' rights.	8. I know someone who holds 3 part-time jobs because they don't know if they will get enough hours.	9. I know someone who would benefit if we made it easier to unionize with a card check system..

Please summarize how lives will improve, if labour laws changed. For example: 5. Higher minimum wage. A cousin wouldn't worry so much about the bills.

1. Advance scheduling
2. Successor's rights
3. Two tier wage rate
4. Sick benefits
5. Higher minimum wage
6. Misclassified position
7. Poor ESA enforcement
8. Minimum hours for part time position
9. Easier card check system to unionize

Please summarize how lives will improve, if labour laws changed. For example: 5. Higher minimum wage. A cousin wouldn't worry so much about the bills.

1. Advance scheduling
2. Successor's rights
3. Two tier wage rate
4. Sick benefits
5. Higher minimum wage
6. Misclassified position
7. Poor ESA enforcement
8. Minimum hours for part time position
9. Easier card check system to unionize

Toronto & York Region Labour Council
15 Gervais Dr. 4 flr. Toronto, ON M3C 1Y8
416-441-3663

Toronto & York Region Labour Council
15 Gervais Dr. 4 flr. Toronto, ON M3C 1Y8
416-441-3663